ARTIST'S STATEMENT

My expression, felt against the backdrop of the Montana landscape, is about being fully alive in the moment.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH:

Artist in Residence: 11/15 – 10/16, Yellowstone Art Museum, Billings. Professor Emeritus of Art, Montana State University - Billings.

Post graduate studies: Columbia University, selected by Dr. David Rosand; Meyer Shapiro Professor of Art History, NEH grant, History of Prints and Drawings. "Drawing: an act as fast as the mind itself. Like a doodle. A natural activity. Unassuming. Unaffected."

Atlantic Center for the Arts; selected by Robert Morris, Minimalist, The Meaning of Contemporary Drawing. "Let's face it; art can be a very boring activity and so in order to keep it interesting; you have to change." "You're different, Neil, you draw from people (in the context of their lives). ...you don't draw the figure, which is really pretentious: The snootiness of the flowing line etc."

Degrees in Art, Montana State University, studies under Robert DeWeese; the pivotal figure in Robert Pirsig's classic: Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance. "It looks like someone once told you how to paint a sky; and now you can't see the sky."

Combat Infantryman Badge/combat artist: Army; Vietnam '66 – '67.
